

CRACK THE CASE - INOVX

STRATEGY 1

“THE CASE HAS BEEN OPENED” – MYSTERY CAMPAIGN

CREATE A SUSPENSEFUL INSTAGRAM CAMPAIGN WHERE THE EVENT IS NOT REVEALED IMMEDIATELY. BEGIN WITH A SHORT 5–10 SECOND TEASER REEL FEATURING A CONFIDENTIAL CASE FILE, BLURRED DOCUMENTS, HIDDEN CLUES, AND A TICKING CLOCK, WITH THE CAPTION “SOMETHING DOESN’T ADD UP. CAN YOU FIGURE IT OUT?” OVER THE NEXT FEW DAYS, RELEASE ONE NEW CLUE THROUGH INSTAGRAM STORIES AND ENCOURAGE STUDENTS TO GUESS, VOTE, AND SHARE THEIR THEORIES. GRADUALLY BUILD CURIOSITY UNTIL THE FINAL REVEAL: “THE CASE IS OPEN – CRACK THE CASE. REGISTRATIONS ARE NOW OPEN!” FOLLOW THIS WITH COUNTDOWN STORIES AND REGISTRATION REMINDERS TO CREATE URGENCY AND DRIVE PARTICIPATION.

STRATEGY 2

“Can YOU Crack This?” – Mini Case Challenge

Create a short Instagram Story or Reel featuring a simple business case, such as “A startup is rapidly losing customers. What would you investigate first?” Give students 15 seconds to choose from 3–4 options using polls or comments. Reveal the answer in the next Story and end with “That was just a warm-up. Think you can crack the real case?” followed by the CRACK THE CASE | INOVX registration details. This gives students a quick experience of the actual event and creates curiosity to participate.

🏆 “Beat the Leaderboard” Challenge 🏆

Conduct an online mini case challenge before the event, where a new business or problem-solving case is posted every two days on Instagram. Participants can analyse the case and submit their answers through a Google Form, earning points for correct or well-reasoned responses. Maintain and regularly update an Instagram leaderboard featuring the top performers to create competition and encourage more students to participate. At the end of the campaign, announce the Top 5/10 performers and give them recognition or small rewards. Finally, promote the main event with the message: “You made it to the leaderboard. Now, can you crack the real case?” This creates continuous engagement and builds excitement for Crack the Case.
